

honeymoon | israel

It's about the journey

At a Glance

20
Cities

114
Trips

2217
Couples participated

7710
Couples applied

1300+
Qualified couples on waitlist

50%

Were referred through a past participant / friend

32

Average age

58%

of Individuals are 1st time visitors to Israel

85%

Feel a new sense of belonging to the Jewish community & a connection to Israel after participating

Both partners are born Jewish

One partner is Jewish by choice

Interfaith couple

7% of individuals identify as LGBTQ

90%

Have children or would like to

honeymoon | israel
It's about the journey

Stanford | SPARQ

For more information, please visit honeymoonisrael.org

(347) 292-8809 | info@honeymoonisrael.org

August 2020

honeymoon | israel

It's about the journey

Stanford SPARQ study shows Honeymoon Israel works

The Honeymoon Israel experience brings participants into the folds of Jewish life and builds lasting community bonds

After participating:

The number of participants identifying as a Jewish family increases by 26%

+26%

+26%

The feeling of connection to Jewish life increases by 26%

49% of participants engage in Jewish activities at home more frequently

+49%

+53%

53% of parents engage in Jewish activities at home with their children more frequently

Responses were collected from individual participants in a survey conducted by Stanford SPARQ.

For more information, please visit honeymoonisrael.org

(347) 292-8809 | info@honeymoonisrael.org

August 2020