

Tu B'Av

DATE NIGHT

Conversation Guide

Tu B'Av is a pretty minor Jewish holiday except here at Honeymoon Israel. We love Tu B'Av, because it is all about love, and we're in the business of looove! Yeah, we're corny like that.

Tu B'Av originated as an opportunity for unwed young people to find a spouse. It was a special time when people from different ancient tribes were encouraged to marry each other. We love that inclusivity!

For generations, Tu B'Av was largely forgotten. In recent decades, modern Israelis have revived this holiday. We think it's a great time to reconnect with your partner and tap into some of the themes of Tu B'Av.

If you're enjoying a Tu B'Av Date Night with your partner, take your conversation further with our discussion prompts ranging from sweet to silly to serious.

If we could revisit any time in our relationship, what would it be and why?

If we could go on an all expenses paid vacation, just the two of us, where would we go?

What's one thing in life that you wish you had more time for?

Discussion Prompts

Who has a relationship you admire? Is there anything about their relationship that we can learn from or incorporate into ours?

In 5 years from now, what do you hope to remember about this time in our relationship?

No matter how you're celebrating your love with your partner on Tu B'Av, we hope you have a fun and romantic evening connecting (even for a moment) about what made you fall in love in the first place.

Spread the love! Help us bring more couples into Honeymoon Israel.
